

Q: So, in which areas would you like to improve yourself as an actor, Adrienne?

A: To be less affected by the things I have no control over.

Q: Do you have any regrets?

A: Hmm... I think my only regret is not giving myself further permission to pursue my own projects. There always seems to be these huge walls to scale before you reach the inner circle and have the power to get things done... but the rules are constantly changing and it pays off to be brave and bold.

Q: How do you maintain such a humble personality despite all your great success?

A: Success is vapor. It comes and goes in waves. The key is to find a way to just enjoy each moment and focus on the work, not the nonsense. Whether things are going your way or if it happens to be a time of struggle, just focus on doing the best work you can with whatever is in front of you. whether it's your dream project or just a stepping stone along the way.
